

TOP THREE PRAISES

For all of the partners who came together to create and fulfill this incredible Match (Ephesians 3:20).

For launching the French translation of True Spirituality (Romans 12) book and small group videos being distributed in France and North Africa, and for the 900 "Romans 12 Christian" parents committed to this. (And praise for 4 days of fun in Paris with Theresa!)

For new insights, relationship, and networks as Chip attended the 140 country Lausanne Global Workplace Forum in Manila, Philippines.

TOP THREE REQUESTS

That God would give wisdom, clear direction, and financial provision for significant expansion in China while the window remains open.

That God will move parents and grandparents across America to engage their children systematically and intentionally with His Word and answers to today's challenging questions.

That God will use the launch of the new Why I Believe small group Bible study to help parents and equip college and high school students to live and share the truth in winsome ways in a hostile culture.
